

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the people of South Dakota enjoy a rich and diverse heritage; and

WHEREAS, this heritage not only reveals state and local growth and development, but also, reflects the social and political growth of our nation throughout the 19th century; and

WHEREAS, this heritage represents the presence of pre-historic and historic aboriginal cultures, and thereby, reveals the continuing complex relationship of man to nature; and

WHEREAS, South Dakota's historical patrimony represents an untapped resource for aesthetic development and cultural growth while significantly beneficial to the state and local economy;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD F. KNEIP, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of October 17 to October 23 as

and I urge all my fellow citizens to reflect on our uniquely significant past to better enable us all to prepare for the future; and in so doing we shall strive toward the wholesome preservation, interpretation and development of our heritage as a natural resource; thereby, we shall become competent stewards of the past for generations to come.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this 6th day of October, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-one.
